

Abstract for Work In-Progress Presentation Submission

	0 Cannot be scored	1 Poor/ Definitely Not Accept	2 Below Average/ Not Accepted	3 Average/ Potential Non-Acceptance	4 Above Average/ Accept	5 Excellent/ Clear Accept
Relevance to Interior Design	No relevance, the topic is not stated	The topic is incomplete/inadequate, poorly articulated	Elemental topic identified, not clearly articulated	Topic fairly relevant to the discipline lacks some clarity	Topic relevant to the discipline, adequately articulated	Topic significantly relevant to the discipline, clearly articulated
Methodological Rigor	The methodological approach is missing	The methodological approach is inappropriate and poorly articulated	The methodological approach identified, not clearly articulated	An appropriate and developing methodological approach is identified but lacks the needed clarity	An appropriate methodological approach is identified, adequately articulated, and somewhat innovative	The methodological approach is well-stated, clearly articulated, and innovative
Transparency & Reflexivity	Insights are missing	Insights are incomplete/inadequate, and poorly articulated	Elemental levels of Insight are identified; however, not clearly articulated	Insights are identified but lack cohesiveness	Insights are articulated adequately	Insights are clearly articulated toward a meaningful outcome
Outcomes (Students and other)	Outcomes are missing	Outcomes are inadequate and poorly articulated.	Elemental levels of outcomes	Standard outcomes; typical level of skill is required and achieved	Above-average outcomes; work is appropriately challenging and high levels of student learning are generally achieved	Exceptional outcomes; quality of work supports success in other contexts (e.g., subsequent courses, curriculum, discipline etc.)
Future Promise	The work mimics much work in the field thus not much promise for future exploration	Based on submission it is hard to determine if the work has future promise a	The work may have future promise.	The work represents average quality and adequate topic alignment to industry.	The work represents quality and future promise.	The work represents high quality work with innovation and much future promise.